

LESSON FIVE

MAKE IT YOURS

WE ARE HERE

- 1 Make a piece of art that reflects your culture

KEY DEFINITIONS AND QUESTIONS

CULTURAL CONTEXT

How do we show our culture through Art?

FUNCTION

What is the function of your design?

MAKING

Can you make a piece of wearable art that has meaning?

STARTER ACTIVITY

Last lesson students created a final design. Over the next two lessons they will make the piece. The art they make will be displayed and used in a group photo to celebrate and support World Refugee day on June 20th, 2017. Ask the students to discuss the cultural significance of the piece they will make.

RESOURCES

We Are Here Official Facebook

<https://www.facebook.com/weareherehongkong/>

World of Wearable Art

<https://www.worldofwearableart.com/>

Mylo. Gallery. '20 Paper Fashion Designers to Inspire You'

<http://blog.okmylo.com/top-10s/top-20-paper-fashion-designers/>

ACTIVITY

Students will have developed a design. They now need to make a piece of wearable art.

ACTIVITY ONE

MAKE IT!

Ask students to reflect on their designs and working from the final design begin to make the final piece.

You may wish to explore different materials such as paper, clay, found objects and fabric. Teachers will need to have resources ready for students to use.

PLENARY

Ask the students to decide on where they will photograph their work. Can they plan where they will have the group photo for the 'We are here' Facebook page?

WE ARE HERE